COUNTY FAILS TO PASS BRIDGE RESOLUTION Norris Opens His Attack On Conference Report

NEBRASKA SENATOR RAISES A POINT OF ORDER AGAINST BILL

Norris Asserts No Real Right Held to Make Such a Report

SECTION ELEVEN FIRST ATTACKED

Opposes Appropriation of Gorgas Fund For Nam Number 3

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—The fight against the senate adoption of the conference report on the Underwood Muscle Shoals leasing bill was opened today when Senator Norris, leader of the opposition, raised a point of order against the report.

Senator Norris declared the conferees had no real right to go outside of the senate bill because the house passed a bill to lease the property to Henry Ford, who had since withdrawn his offer.

Technically, he declared, "they did have a right to draw from both the senate and house bills."

The first provision of the report attacked by Senator Norris was section 11 authorizing the President to employ advisors to assist in drafting a lease and the appropriation of $100,000 for that purpose. He declared this was "new legislation" and it was not included in either house or senate legislation, and was subject to a point of order.

The conferees, Senator Norris asserted, exceeded their rights when they changed the property rental provision. The conferees, he declared, made the rental less than either the senate or house bills.

Under the conference report, the senator declared it would be possible for the leasee to get the property without paying a cent.

The requirements for annual production of nitrogen for fertilizer was raised by the Nebraska senator as another violation of the rights of conference committee. The Ford bill he said, called for 40,000 tons usually all of the time. The senate bill called for 40,000 tons after the fifth year, but the conference report was the production to 40,000 tons tenth the tenth year.

Another instance of where the conferees overstepped their rights, he told found in the authorization of the appropriation of $3,472,487, the proceeds received from the sale of the gorgas steam plant from the Alabama Power company, toward cost of construction of dam number three.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—The conference report on the Underwood Muscle Shoals leasing bill was before the state today as the unfinished business.

Managers of the measure hoped to get it before the senate until a final vote is taken, but they faced a vote of the opposition to oppose the adoption of the report with a small group of organized senators.

While the opposition group denied a plan to conduct a filibuster they were insisting on a thorough discussion of the subject and were preparing to fight the report by raising a point of order against numerous provisions.

Supporters of the legislation were ready to combat any signs of a filibuster with night sessions and the adoption of the report within a day.

FELLOWSHIP DAY WELL UNDERWAY

SPLENDID MEETING HELD BY PROPHETS

Good Crowds Expected to Be On Streets Monday 23rd

From present indications it is pointed out that a good crowd will be on the main thoroughfares and intersecting streets of Albany-Decatur on Monday, the 23rd in observance of "Washington's Birthday" and what the chamber of commerce has termed "Good Fellowship Day."

Quite a bit of interest is manifest among the people of the cities and the commerce board has left nothing undone in the effort to engender the spirit of good feeling and friendship in the spirit of the day.

As it was stated previously, "to have a friend, you must be one, be worth the friendship of others," and numbers are looking forward to the day for the mere novelty of shaking hands with old acquaintances and meeting new. The feeling of cordiality and welcome is to abound from the individual to the businessman, from the pulpit to the industry.

The greater the crowd on the streets that day, the greater will be the results in leading to co-operation that must be had in the future growth of the cities and the entire section.

Mrs. Larkin is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Kimbrough and is a graduate of the Leland Powers school of oratory at Boston, Mass. She spent sometime, with signal success, directing amateur theatrical productions and, while here, also successfully conducted a story telling hour for children, displaying marked talent in the entertainment of the kiddies.

The Miami program is put in the air at six o'clock each evening.

Humphrey chairman of the entertainment committee.

Crash Occurs At 4th and Jackson

Two automobiles crashed at the intersection of Jackson street and 4th avenue on Wednesday evening near 6 o'clock. A Ford coupe driven by a negro and proceeding northward and a five passenger car said to have been driven by John Cobb and headed west toward Second avenue came together. The coupe caught the larger car amidships and apparently badly damaged the running board, fenders and connections of the radiator. The extent of the damage to the smaller car was not ascertained.

It was said that a number of cars were near the point at the time of the collision and this accounted for the smash.

RESOLUTIONS ASKS RECALL OF WEEKS TO WITNESS STAND

Committee Desires To Question Further War Secretary

MITCHELL AGAIN GIVES TESTIMONY

Assistant Air Chief Is Not Called On Carpet At the White House

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—A resolution asking that Secretary of War Weeks be re-called before the house air craft committee for further questioning on the adequacy of the national defense against an air attack, was unanimously adopted by the committee today following testimony by Brigadier General Mitchell.

Instead of going to the white house for his much advertised "reprimand" from President Coolidge, General Mitchell appeared before the committee and re-affirmed his opposition to the administration's air craft policies.

Before he took the stand, the General disclaimed all connection with the report of a white house summons, which broke up yesterday's committee meeting. Committee members who received that report refused to say who had been their informant.

Both the white house and the offices of the secretary of war denied they passed any such information along to the committee.

Then general insisted today that he not only had not spread the report that he was to be called on the green carpet by the President today and informed a re-appointment had been denied him as assistant chief of the air service, but he added that he had not received such a summons.

General Mitchell assailed the inadequacy of the nation's air powers and asserted the defense of the Hawaiian Islands were as "obsolete as bows and arrows."

Japan could capture both the Philippines and Hawaii adding the latter could not hold out against Japan for two weeks.

During discussion of the proposal to recall Secretary Weeks, Representative Reed, republican of Illinois, said he thought the war secretary should be re-called as "he doesn't seem to know anything about his department."

The resolution was offered by Representative O'Sullivan, democrat of Conn., after Representative Perkins, republican of New Jersey, the committee examiner had presented a report which he understood was a "authentic war department release."

MCWILLIAMS CASE NOT YET RETURNED

Grand Jury Finds Sixteen True Bills Thus Far

Although the case of Andrew McWilliams, negro, who is being held in connection with the case charging assault upon Mrs. Cleveland Reed, prominent Austinville woman some weeks ago, has not yet come before the grand jury which was recently organized by the circuit court of Morgan County the grand jury is understood to have returned 16 true bills in the cases that have been brought to their attention.

The true bills that were returned have not yet been made public.

There are a great many people over the section and particularly in the Austinville territory that are interested in the McWilliams case. It is thought that that case will be returned before the end of the week.

The jurors now in session are Albert Beatty, E. J. St. John, Claude Compton, Luke Sharp, A. H. Dinsmore, Woodford Goodson, R. Dennis Parker, J. Luke Stovall, Loss J. Wallace, J. Wesley Doss, Luther W. Bolling, Luther Long, L. Hayden French, Robert E. Singleton, Joe Beavers, R. Lee Moore, W. Robert Pressly and Floyd Sparkman. Mr. Beatty was named as foreman.

Both the white house and the offices of the secretary of war denied they passed any such information along to the committee.

Then general insisted today that he not only had not spread the report that he was to be called on the green carpet by the President today and informed a re-appointment had been denied him as assistant chief of the air service, but he added that he had not received such a summons.

General Mitchell assailed the inadequacy of the nation's air powers and asserted the defense of the Hawaiian Islands were as "obsolete as bows and arrows."

Fine Is Aftermath Of Chase Of Auto

A fine of $53.60 was the aftermath of a chase of an automobile by the Decatur police yesterday. The police car attempted to stop the fleeing machine with a shot at the tires of the latter, but the machine was brought to a halt only when, while bounding over a railroad track, a wheel gave way. The driver was fined $53.60 on a charge of violating the prohibition law.

ECONOMY PROGRAM HITS WHITE HOUSE

Towel Supply Cut And Loan of Pencils To Reporters Stopped

(Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—Evidences of President Coolidge's insistence upon economy at home were seen today while employees in white house offices waited to learn the winner in the $1 prize economy contest conducted by H. T. Webster, disbursing officer of the offices, in an endeavor to ascertain ways and means of cutting expenses.

The items of economy already noted about the white house offices already include: reduction from 175 to 88 towels rationed daily to the five washrooms in the white house offices.

Substitution of a common drinking glass for individual paper cups at the drinking fountains.

Orders to turn out all lights whenever not needed.

Reluctance of employees to extent "loans" for an indefinite period of pencils to newspaper correspondents who, for time immemorial have looked to the executive offices as a dependable source of supply for this article.

Use over and over again of large manila envelopes in which messengers carry documents to and from the various departments.

These, however, are only the starts on the economies which Mr. Webster says must be instituted if the saving of $12,500 demanded by Mr. Coolidge is accomplished in the coming fiscal year.

The announcement came to W. W. Rahm who is chairman of the committee through R. L. Gibson, postmaster at Danville.

Kiwanians expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the response that has already been received and again expressed the belief that the programme would be most beneficial to both the agriculturists and the townspeople in the solving of problems that are continually before the people of the section.

Watch for Serial Story Starting In Daily In Few Days

The mats for "Sinners in Heaven," the new serial story to be published by the Albany-Decatur Daily, have arrived and are being prepared for publication, beginning next week.

"Sinners in Heaven," in complete form convinces readers that the story is even better than the advance proofs indicated it would be. In fact the new serial, The Daily believes is the best it has ever published during its thirteen years of existence.

A couple of human beings found an earthly paradise in which stern necessity prevented their adopting all the conventions laid down by the moral code. The experience did not render them less fit for the more glorious heaven that is to come, however much prudish minds may affect to be shocked by their story. No one but will agree that judges did not err when they awarded it the prize in competition with the words of some of the best of modern novelists.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it hereby ordered by the highway commission of the State of Alabama, that upon and when there is placed with Tip For Beginners.

Solve this puzzle by comparing the synonyms listed in the "Horizontal" and "Vertical" columns with the number of spaces extending crosswise or downward on the diagram, as the case may be. If a word occurs to you meaning substantially the same as the synonym and the correct number of letters to fit in the spaces between its number and the first shaded stop following, write it in lightly. Work away the small words, the "easy" words, first, and they will give you plenty of clues to the difficult ones.

GOVERNOR HITS TAX

(Associated Press)

No remedy can cure all ailments of the human body, but an average number of people suffer from aches, pains and diseases symptoms when their real trouble is lack of iron in the blood. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food. Without iron your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it. There is an universally popular tonic that has helped thousands because it contains iron like the iron in fresh vegetables and like the iron in your blood.

Common Malady Is Found Serious Among Women Here

Remarkable Discovery of the Cause of Nine Out of Every Ten Cases of So-called Female Troubles Results in Perfection of Wonderful Medicine.

The charm of woman is very easily destroyed. Very often girls go hopelessly through that period of life when all her companions are looking forward with eagerness and rapture to the day when they shall realize the greatest ambition of their life and become a happy bride. You have seen her arrive at the doubtful age of 30 still with no prospect of marriage, while all her other girlhood friends are either married or about to be. It is easy to see that she doesn't attract men in the way that her chums do, but why doesn't she?

What is holding her back from the realization of every girl's dream? She has nice features, education, brains, perhaps money, but no man seems to be interested in her.

The answer to the question lies in the state of her health. She would be a liability instead of an asset to any man. She has broken engagements with them because she was too sick to keep them; she has alarmed them by her nervousness and angered them by her irritability. Regardless of her charming personality when she is well she cannot make up for her shortcomings when she is sick.

Only a few weeks ago the discoverers of the now famous St. Joseph's G. F. P. made the prediction that within a few years after the universal use of G. F. P. by the women of this country, such common ailments as nausea, pains in the sides, back and legs, headaches, cramping spells, and that awful tired out, run down feeling of depression, will be a thing of the past. And the way it is causing women to become miracles of restored energy, strength and vitality with glowing, healthy, buoyant spirits, proves that this prophecy is coming true.—Advt.

Women Now Depend on St. Joseph's G. F. P. To Restore Their Vitality and so determines and adjudges that to presently extend the desired aid, under constitutional provisions and prohibitions, but the members of this board feel that they have just foundation for believing that the finances of this county will be such in the near future, so that it will be in a position to extend this aid. NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that it is the sense of the members of this Board that in the event the Board of Revenue of Morgan County, Alabama, is able at the close of this year, or during the early part of the year of 1926 to retire a sufficient amount of the indebtedness of this County, so that it can extend said aid and keep within the constitutional limitations, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) will then be set aside and devoted to the aid of said bridge construction and will execute four (4) notes warrants or other obligation of County, each in the sum of Thousand ($5,000.00) and payable one, two, three and four years date, for the purpose aforesaid, the members of this Board will do their best energies to the retirance of the aid of said bridge construction penditures may be lawfully made.

A DAILY PRAYER.—We pray that we may realize that a lowly heart is the only temple in which Thou wilt dwell.

Every merchant in the cities is offering opportunities to buyers these days. A splendid chance to start your "Buy At Home" campaign and see that you stick to it.

There is one thing about the Collins death, a great many people have been convinced that the newspapers were not conducting an advertising "scheme" for Cave City.

YOUR INCOME TAX

Bad debts may be deducted from gross income in computing net income only for the year in which they are ascertained to be worthless and charged off the books of the taxpayer. The necessity for this provision of the law is obvious. If a bad debt was allowed as a deduction without requirement that it be charged off the books, the certainty of its worthlessness would be left open to question. If a bad debt were allowed as a deduction in the year in which charged off, without regard to when it was ascertained to be worthless, such charges could be unduly accumulated.

The taxpayer should attach to his return a statement showing the propriety of any deduction claimed for a bad debt. Where the surrounding circumstances show that a debt is worthless and uncollectible and that legal action, in all probability, would not avail, proof of these facts is sufficient evidence of its worthlessness.

The difference between the face value of a note and the amount received in compromise is an allowable deduction, provided the debtor has no assets out of which the entire amount may be collected by suit. However, where the debt is compromised the debtor having assets out of which the entire amount could have been collected through legal action, the difference between the amount received in compromise and the amount claimed, whether admitted or disputed, is not an allowable deduction as a bad debt.

Unpaid loans made to needy relatives with little or no expectation of their return are not deductible, but are regarded as gifts. Where a creditor continues to extend credit to a debtor a debt may not be charged off as worthless. If a debt is forgiven it can not be claimed, as it is then regarded as a gift, which is not an allowable deduction. A valid debt proved to be worthless is not always a proper deduction. For example, unpaid amounts representing wages, salaries, rentals, or similar items of taxable income are not allowed as deductions unless included in the creditor's return for the year in which such deduction is sought of in a previous year. The fact that expected income was not received does not decrease the amount of taxable income.

POSITION OF THE NEWSPAPERS IN THE FIELD OF NEWS REMAINS SECURE

In the Floyd Collins case the newspapers kept faith with the public, the Gadsden Times, News says, commenting on the many rumors which gained general circulation, especially during the last few days of the attempt to rescue Collins from his natural prison. With the unfortunate Kentucky cave explorer buried in the caves he loved so well, we may pause to consider a situation which has few, if any, parallels in recent years.

No story since the war has gripped the imagination of the nation for such a length of time. Interest in the case reached such a state of intensity, that it almost approached hysteria. Newspaper offices were swamped with inquiries about the progress of the rescue attempt. Perhaps it would have been asking too much to hope that out of this amazing situation there would not come many rumors, most of them without foundation. Many agencies were imposed upon. Reports, no doubt, were laid to newspapers, which the newspapers never printed; other rumors were laid to the door of telegraph agencies, which the latter had never heard of; the railroad and market wires were quoted as transmitting messages which, after all, never were put on the wire. Rumors have a habit of growing from mere rumors into accepted facts as they are passed along by word of mouth. It is different with the printed message.

The newspapers have kept faith in the Collins case. Despite the wild accusations of hysterical persons that the story might be a "frame up," or a "hoax" or a "murder," the newspapers have kept right on with their job of giving the public the news of every event in the case, just as it happened, when it happened.

The discovery of Collins' body was handled in the same manner.

The Times-News, in an editorial published the day before Collins' body was found, says:

"When Floyd Collins is found and the whole story of his being made captive in a Kentucky cave it will be shown that the stories sent out by William R. Miller, a reporter for the Louisville Courier Journal, were true, although every effort seems to have been made to discredit the fact that, at the risk of his life, he went into that death hole and not only attempted to rescue a fellow human but saw and talked to Collins. Out of the multiplicity of rumors and plain lies it will be found that this trained reporter told the truth exactly as he saw it.

If there has been any hoax at Cave City it has not come to light. As this is being written it is possible that Collins has already been found and taken from his terrible prison. We hope that is true and that all the facts will be given out, so that the public may know them, and also learn that the newspapers have kept faith.

The truth is that the newspapers have not been responsible for the wild stories that have gone out about this tragic incident.

Here in Gadsden numbers of people have insisted each morning for ten days or more that they "heard it going over the radio" that Collins had been taken out of his tomb.

How they got that way we do not know.

Others nightly heard the same news over the Western Union wires.

Still others insisted that he had been found and that the news came over the "railroad wires."

The stock ticker, of course, carried something of the kind every day.

A few declared that a "traveling man" just back from Kentucky said that there was nothing in the story anyway, that Collins got out several days ago and the newspapers were just fooling the people.

The people have been fooled all right, but they have fooled themselves. They have seized every opportunity in every village, town and city in the country, all of it without rhyme or reason.

The newspapers have had special wires, special writers and even special wireless stations on the spot almost from the very beginning and there has not been a single moment that they were not equipped and ready to send out the truth and all of it.

And their wires will be first and only medium to carry the actual rescue as it happens."

It will be recalled by readers of The Daily here that only last week a rumor gained general circulation to the effect that Collins had been reached and taken from the cave alive. Everyone hoped that it was true and perhaps that made the rumor easy of belief. The Daily published the truth about the conditions of affairs at Sand Cave that afternoon. Still the rumor persisted, the new version being that the body had been found after the paper went to press. Such is our persistency in believing those things we wish to believe and ignoring those things we desire to forget.

The Times-News is correct in that the newspapers have kept faith, but they have done more than that. The newspapers, by their handling of the Collins story, have made their place in the field of news dissemination even more secure. There are now many agencies for distribution of news, and views, but the newspapers remain the most accurate, the most reliable, and the fastest.

PROGRESS THROUGHOUT ALABAMA

As the year swings into increased industrial momentum throughout the state, there is every promise of new high records over those of 1924, which was noted as a year of expansion and development. Not only are prospects favorable in the farming industry, but banking interests, industrial expansion, including building operations, civic projects and educational progress all give indications of advancement during this year, and for an indefinite period.

Some of the recently published developments going on in this state are typical of the general situation. They are unimpeachable evidence of the state's onward march. They include the following: Improvements representing an investment of about forty thousand dollars are to be made on the Benevolent hospital at Albany-Decatur. The Decatur Fertilizer Company is equipping its plants with new machinery to take care of the large spring business promised. The Decatur Brick Corporation is greatly enlarging and improving its plant. The Etowah ore mines, which were idle for thirteen years, are now in operation with about three hundred employees. The Alabama Farm Bureau completed arrangements to establish an intermediate credit bank to increase credit facilities for the farmers, with capital stock of a hundred thousand dollars. The Cole furnace of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Company at Sheffield was blown in after an idleness of eight months. Opelika's new union passenger station has been opened to the public. A mattress factory there has been enlarged and equipped with new machinery to accommodate an increased volume of business. The Health Food Cereal Corporation of Florence, recently capitalized at a hundred thousand dollars, is receiving machinery and will soon be in operation.

Receipts at the Florence postoffice made a gain of 26 per cent in January. Cotton mills at Pritchard have begun making cloth. The First Baptist church at Mobile will erect an annex to cost forty-two thousand dollars. The DeFardelleben coal mines at Townley are running full time with double shifts and adding new forces. Two hundred and twenty-five thousand tons of fertilizer were ordered by the farmers of Shelby county up to the last of January. Work on the first unit of the school of religion was authorized to begin early in the fall at an initial cost of $250,000. Tuscaloosa will begin street paving in the spring to cost $150,000. The Tuscaloosa high school building, to cost $350,000, is nearing completion. More than seven hundred men have resumed work at the plants of the Brown and Sons Lumber company in Tuscaloosa county, after repairs and betterments were made. Enlargement of the wood-working plant of the Fair Manufacturing Company at Albany-Decatur has been completed and increased operations are under way. Several lumber mills have been established in Tuscaloosa and adjacent counties recently. The First National bank of Mooreville has been organized with capital stock of $50,000.

THE COST OF A YEAR'S CIGAR TIPS WOULD PAY PATAGONIA'S NATIONAL DEBT

A cigar tip is as useless as a ring on an African's nose. It may be ornamental, but it has no practical value.

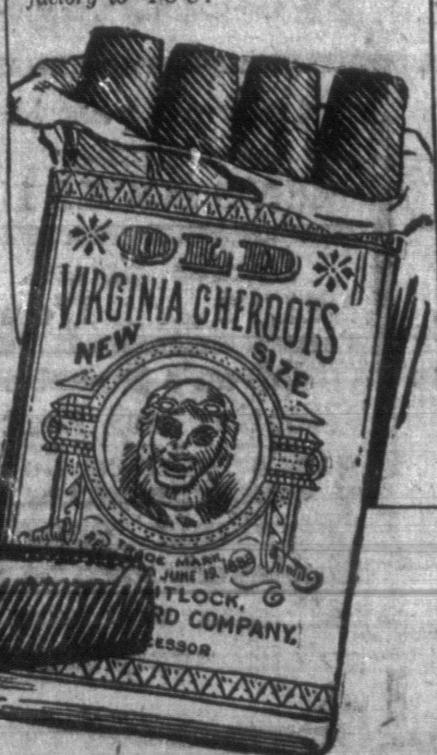

Nearly one-half the cost of making a cigar goes into the tip. Is it good sense to spend good cents for a point that has no point?

It's a hard job to make a cigar tip. But the art is wasted. You snip it off before you light the cigar.

In a sealed package; contents untouched by human hands—from factory to YOU.

That's why we can give you 4 fragrant, mellow 4 1/4 inch cigars for 1 thin dime. Made from prime-leaf, sun-cured Perfecto cigar tobacco. A princely smoke at a convenient price. The triumph of volume production: and of 28 years "know-how" in cigar making.

DREADFUL PAINS

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardui and is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes:

"After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during ... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house.

"I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve.

"My side hurt less and I began to improve in health ... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all.

"I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui."

Take CARDUI THE WOMAN'S TONIC

Mrs. R. A. Kirkland who has been sick at her home on Fourth avenue West for about ten days—continues quite ill.

Mrs. Arthur Emens is expected home this week from Jasper, Ala., where she spent the past several weeks in an infirmary.

of his play the author says:

"I had in mind playing upon the psychology of fear in a novel way and relied merely on creating such a stage illusion as would swiftly swing my audience along so they would get the required reaction from the story. I wanted them to feel, not reason over the plausibility of the thing. I did not give a hang if they would only 'feel it.' Well, they did. It reacted just as I hoped it would."

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected

Judging from reports from drugists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test his great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper. Advt.

Vicks Used To Rub Away Baby's Colds

Applied at First Sign of Croup or Colds, Old Family Standby Proves Very Effective.

It is not without reason that Vicks has grown to be an almost universal remedy for colds. With Vicks there is no dosing—nothing to upset a delicate stomach—you just rub it on.

Not only is Vicks absorbed through and stimulates the skin but its healing vapors of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Thyme and Turpentine are breathed all night long directly into the air passages and lungs. This direct double action eases the difficult breathing and relieves the congestion.

Vicks is just as good of course, for all cold troubles—not only of children but of grown-ups too.

On account of its penetrative and rubefacient effect on the skin Vicks also will be found useful every day for cuts, burns, scalds and bruises as well as for itchings, muscular soreness and headache. It has justly earned the name of "The Remedy of 100 Uses."—Advt.
